[illegible]

2025 Genealogy Series

Welcome!

The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) is pleased to present this educational series of lectures on how to conduct family research.

NARA's mission is to preserve and provide access to the records of the government of the United States of America. We are thrilled to share our records that relate to family history and to make those records available to you through the Genealogy Series.

About the Sessions

Our presentations will demonstrate how to use federal resources at the National Archives and Records Administration for genealogical research.

National Archives experts are presenting from our locations across the United States. Sessions are intended for beginners to experienced family historians—all are welcome!

Session Overview

Washington, DC, Law and Order: Cops and Robbers, 1861–1991

Discover how troublemakers—and those who pursue them—can leave a record behind them. This presentation will highlight what may be found in the Metropolitan Police's Personnel Case Files and the Index to Criminal Cases (Record Group 351) and Dockets (Record Group 21). Other DC police and criminal records, including basic strategies for locating FBI records, will be briefly addressed.

CONDITION OF THE INJURED POLICEMEN.—
Officer Henson Brown, who was so severely injured by colored rowdies on Friday night last, at Galbreth chapel, on L street, between Fourth and Fifth, is in a fair way of recovery, Dr. Elliott, his attending physician, pronouncing him out of danger unless fever or relapse should occur. It will be some weeks, however, before he will be able to attend to the duties of his office.

Officer Thomas Lawler, who was assaulted at the same time, has so far recovered as to be able to go about the house, and in a few days is expected to appear on the force.

Officer T. M. Sullivan, who was accidentally shot on Sunday morning last at the fire of Wheeler's junk-shop, still remains at Sudden Death of Officer Lawler.

Officer Thomas Lawler, of the Sixth Precinct Station, was attacked with the chills at that station about 10 o'clock Saturday night, and, growing very ill, he was removed to his home, 1618 Fourth street northwest, where he died in about half an hour. Dr. Elliott was called in when the officer was first taken ill, but all medical aid was without avail. Mr. Lawler was an efficient officer and a genial gentleman, and his loss will be deeply regretted.

Major Brock issued an order to-day calling attention to Officer Lawler's death, and, as a mark of respect, directing an escort of thirty men, under Lieutenant Greer, to accompany the remains to the place of interment.

National Archives Court Records

Court Records at the National Archives cover more than 200 years of court proceedings at the federal level. The earliest court records in our holdings date to approximately 1790. It is estimated that there are more than 2.2 billion textual pages of court materials in the National Archives. As the court retires materials annually, this number continues to grow.

Court materials are created by:

- District Courts
- Circuit Courts
- Select Territorial courts, prior to statehood
- Court of Appeals
- Supreme Court

The types of records are primarily case files. Categories of case files include:

- civil
- admiralty
- equity
- law
- criminal
- bankruptcy cases (all files in Kansas City)

In addition to case files, other type of records are:

- dockets
- indexes
- minutes
- administrative files
- execution books
- order books
- rule books
- final record books

IDENTIFICATION RECORDS AND DESCRIPTIONS

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN R. TIERNEY.

OFFICER DEWEY HOBSON TAYLOR, JR.

A check of the records of the Identification Division of the FBI disclosed that said records contained no arrest record for Officer TAYLOR. The only fingerprints on file in the Identification Division for TAYLOR are applicant type fingerprint cards.

A check of the criminal and traffic arrest records of the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C., disclosed that they contained no record of Officer TAYLOR.

A review of Officer TAYLOR's personnel file as maintained by the Metropolitan Police Department reflects that he was appointed as a Class I Private in the Metropolitan Police Department, at a salary of $3,409.71 per annum, on January 16, 1952. Upon completion of training school, he was transferred to Number 2 Precinct on March 24, 1952. His personnel file reflects that he had served in the United States Army under Army Serial Number 13-145-085. A certification in his file from the Department of Army reflects that TAYLOR enlisted in the Army on November 4, 1942, and was discharged honorably on August 21, 1943. At the time of enlisting, he indicated his birthdate as March 31, 1923. However, he was actually born on March 31, 1926, and was honorably discharged upon request of his mother, because he was under age. No disciplinary action or letters of commendation were contained in Officer TAYLOR's file. The following is his description as contained in his personnel file.

Color:	White;
Sex:	Male;
Age:	26 years;
Born:	March 31, 1926, Washington, D. C.;

Thank You Genealogy Series Team!

Huge thanks go to:

- the presenters,
- the AV team,
- the Communications and Marketing Division,
- employees throughout Research Services, and
- everyone else who contributed to the success of this program.

We could not produce the Genealogy Series without your support!
